Re: Competitive Market Analysis (CMA), 3513 Tunberry Dr property

Dear Mr. Herb

Thank you for extending the courtesy of viewing and walking through your property on Saturday, August 25th. It was a pleasure to meet you.

Please find attached my CMA of five(5) sold properties that I believe generally comparable to your home. The closing net values from these properties range from $187,000 to $200,000. However, I have also compared these five(5) overall property conditions and general upkeep to your property at 3513 Turnberry Dr and must advise that I believe to successfully market your home you would have to discount the CMA values a minimum of 15% or more in order for it to be a marketable home. In my opinion the current marketable value of your home is $165,000.

If you need any additional information please do not hesitate to contact me.

Regards

Official Form 106CSchedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt*4/16

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. Using the property you listed on Schedule A/B: Property (Official Form 106A/B) as your source, list the property that you claim as exempt. If more space is needed, fill out and attach to this page as many copies of Part 2: Additional Page as necessary. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known).

For each item of property you claim as exempt, you must specify the amount of the exemption you claim. One way of doing so is to state a specific dollar amount as exempt. Alternatively, you may claim the full fair market value of the property being exempted up to the amount of any applicable statutory limit. Some exemptions—such as those for health aids, rights to receive certain benefits, and tax-exempt retirement funds—may be unlimited in dollar amount. However, if you claim an exemption of 100% of fair market value under a law that limits the exemption to a particular dollar amount and the value of the property is determined to exceed that amount, your exemption would be limited to the applicable statutory amount.

Part 1: Identify the Property You Claim as Exempt

1. Which set of exemptions are you claiming? Check one only, even if your spouse is filing with you.

☐ You are claiming state and federal nonbankruptcy exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(3)

☒ You are claiming federal exemptions. 11 U.S.C. § 522(b)(2)
